Life Long Learning

Moshe Levi - Sunday, March 5 - 9:00am - Back By Popular Demand

Parents and Kids in the Jewish Book Shelves

The dynamics between parents and children has been a topic of discussion in the Jewish world from ancient time until today. In this meeting we will read together texts from Jewish book shelves throughout the generations, and learn how different thinkers and texts address the topic of parents and children. We will read from the bible, including the writings of the Rabbis in the Mishnah and Talmud, the philosophers of the middle ages, and the thinkers and writers of modern age. Together, we will explore texts - ancient to modern - and attempt to find new meaning.

Noa Baum - Sunday, March 19 - 9:30am

A Land Twice Promised

Israeli storyteller Noa Baum began a heartfelt dialogue with a Palestinian woman while living in the United States. She weaves together memories, and their mothers' stories, to create a moving testimony that illuminates the complex and contradictory history and emotions surrounding Jerusalem, for Israelis and Palestinians alike. Noa takes us behind the rhetoric and headlines to hear the true stories of four women: 2 Israelis and 2 Palestinians. In the process, we experience the most precious ingredient for the resolution of any major conflict: mutual compassion.

Monday, April 24 - 7:00pm

Remember

Join us at Temple as we view and discuss the film Remember, a 2015 award-winning Canadian-German thriller. This film stars Christopher Plummer as an elderly Holocaust survivor, in search of a Nazi war criminal responsible for the death of his family. Admission is $5 and snacks will be provided. Co-sponsored by Connections.

Anita Gordon and Cantor Galit - Sunday, May 21 - 1:30pm

La Chanson Francaise

Join temple member Anita Gordon and Cantor Galit for an afternoon concert of art-songs. This concert explores the Post-Romantic era of late 19th century French composers: Faure, Debussy, Duparc and others. Classical art songs full of passion and stunning French poetry. Co-sponsored by Renaissance.

Adult Hebrew

Come and learn Hebrew with Cantor Galit. Gain confidence in reading the vowels and letters of our ancient language. Begin to build a vocabulary and understanding of many common words.

Sunday mornings at 9:15am

March 19, 26; April 2

Thursday afternoons at 1:00pm

March 2, 9, 16, 23, 30; April 6, 20, 27; May 4, 11, 18, 25

Shira - Learning Music

Join together with Cantor Galit to learn the new melodies and to review some favorite oldies.

The spring session will begin just prior to services on Friday evening, March 17, at 6:00pm and promises to be a wonderful way to welcome Shabbat.

Shabbat Speakers

Smadar Bilik - Friday, March 17 - 7:30pm

Smadar works in the Israel-Diaspora Department of the Israel Reform and Progressive Movement (IMPJ) and is the coordinator of the DOMIM-aLike project. This project is a worldwide partnership to develop meaningful relationships and bridge the growing gaps between Israel and the Reform and Progressive communities around the world. We are pleased to be part of DOMIM-aLike and will be partnering with a congregation in Jerusalem. Smadar will be giving the d'var Torah and will share with us thoughts about Israel-Diaspora relations.

Meital Regev - Friday, April 28 - 6:30pm

Join Meital Regev during services as she shares with us: "The journey of the Ethiopian Jews and their struggle for the validity of their Judaism in front of the Orthodox Rabbinate of Israel."

Sisterhood Events

Women's Seder - Sunday, March 26 - 5:00pm

Join the group that has been putting the "HER" in Passover since 2002. Mark your calendars for a wonderful evening of music, meaning, and a great menu.

Renaissance Events

Saturday, March 11:

View a simulcast of the Metropolitan Opera Company's performance of La Traviata at 12:55pm at the Rockaway AMC Theater. Those interested will enjoy dinner at Charlie Brown's in Denville following the opera.

Sunday, April 2:

With help from Gary Fisch of Gary's Wine and Marketplace, we will have an opportunity to learn about Israeli wines and then to taste them along with selected cheeses at 3:00pm at TBO. Whether celebrating Passover at your home or that of a friend or relative, this is a great opportunity to enjoy and purchase these wines in time for Passover. In addition there will be an elaborate sweet table and coffee to complete the day. Cost is $15. Contact Mitzi Szerlip at 973-839-1939 to RSVP or pay $20 at the door. Each participant will receive a $5 credit towards the purchase of wine.

Sunday, April 23:

1:00pm brunch at TBO. Attorney Bill Marks, of Basking Ridge, will speak to us about his career dedicated to helping Holocaust survivors and their families secure compensation/reparations.

Sunday, May 21:

Please join temple member Anita Gordon and Cantor Galit for an afternoon concert of art-songs at 1:30pm. This concert explores the Post-Romantic era of late 19th century French composers: Faure, Debussy, Duparc and others. Classical art songs full of passion and stunning French poetry.
