

Mary Hodgson

Mary Hodgson has been creating art since 2015. She is passionate about the creative process and expressing herself through her art. Her work can be described as abstract realism. She works in mixed media and enjoys the vibrant colors she gets when combining fluid acrylics with collage papers.

Mary is a trained horticulturalist and brings her knowledge and love of flowers to her paintings. She is an avid hiker, and spends a lot of time in nature seeking inspiration for her artwork.
